Eight Passive House standard townhouse units in Squamish, BC. The units are designed to enhance and stimulate social interaction between residents whilst facilitating the outdoor lifestyle and culture of the area. The development situates all vehicular access to the site edges creating high-quality landscaped outdoor space in the centre of the site that is easily accessed from each townhome, promoting safe and inviting spaces for children to play and neighbours to meet.

TarsemHaus

1009 Aspen Road, Squamish
British Columbia

Saturday, November 9th, 10am - 4pm

Please contact Derek Venter at dva@dvad.org for more information.